

2019 UNIV SHOWCASE WINNERS

CREATIVE / ARTS

FIRST PLACE AWARD:

Project 44: DILUTED: A SHORT FILM ABOUT THE COLLEGE AMERICAN DREAM - Instructor: Toby Daspit

The short film explores the complexities of the American Dream confronting Generation Z college students.

HONORABLE MENTION AWARD:

Project 45: WOMEN WHO GET AROUND T-SHIRT BY SARAH MELTON - Instructor: Disha Acharya

The T-shirt represents the themes of the course: sexuality, marriage, motherhood, class, race, identity, and religion.

CREATIVE WRITTEN WORK

FIRST PLACE AWARD

Project 25: EXPECTATIONS OF INSPIRATION BY JORDAN RICHARD – Instructor: Disha Acharya, Section H12

The poetry was inspired by the themes of the class, looking at travelling and adventure from narratives around the world

HONORABLE MENTION

Project 31: SHORT STORY BY JOSEPH HOUSTON – Instructor: Disha Acharya, Section H12

The short story is based on the Adventure theme of the class.

HUMANITIES & SOCIAL SCIENCE

FIRST PLACE AWARD

Project 3: RECIPIES FOR WELLNESS - Instructor Emily Covington, Section 49

Based on research, experience, and previous class assignments, the class created a self-care recipe book.

HONORABLE MENTION

Project 69: GEOGRAPHY OF FOOD CLASS RECIPE BOOK – Instructor: Dr. Brittany Cook, Section 95

Students designed recipe pages to share meals of social significance

BEST IN SHOW

Project 4: RESIST! - Instructor: Denise Marceaux

The class created a 3D symbol of resistance. Students worked on design, materials, building and finishing. Outcomes included successful completion through group work, time management, and incorporation of class themes. The project is a representation of women overcoming discrimination.